Expiration date for expressed authorization is _____. If the patient does not express a desire for a specific date or condition to revoke their authorization, this authorization will expire ninety (90) days from the date signed by the patient or legal representative.

I have read, or have had read to me, the above statements, and understand them as they apply to me. I further understand that I may revoke this authorization at any time, except to the extent that action has already been taken in accord with this authorization. Revocation by the patient or legal representative is allowable only in the event that release of information has not already occurred. Specific exceptions to revoke an authorization exist, as detailed by federal law, such as:

- SRMC has taken action in reliance thereon, or
- The authorization was obtained as a condition of obtaining insurance coverage, whereby another law provides the insurer with the right to contest a claim under the policy.

In order to revoke an authorization, a written document stating the intent of the patient to revoke such authorization must be either presented in person to or delivered by certified mail to the Privacy Officer of Sumner Regional Medical Center. This revocation document must contain the signature of the patient or patient's legal representative. I understand that treatment, payment, enrollment, or eligibility for benefits may not be conditioned on obtaining this authorization.
